BLACK FRIDAY · CYBER MONDAY

BFCM 2026 SALE PLAN

What we learned last time, what we are running, what we are selling, and what has to be locked before the hype starts.

THE PLAN ON ONE PAGE

WHEN

Hype Tue 17 and Wed 18 Nov. Sale Thu 19 Nov 12:00 PM (midday) to Tue 1 Dec 11:59 PM AEDT: 13 days, Black Friday on day 9, Cyber Monday on day 12. Mid-sale from Mon 23 Nov opens a new market: gifting, with a Titan Sox × DiggerLid × 3DPro pack on its own page.

TARGET

$990k sale revenue incl. GST (about $900k net). Floor: $585k (2025 repeated). Stretch: $1.27M on the Aug to Sep run rate. Spend $230k, about 23% of revenue; ceiling 28%.

OFFER

Up to 25% off + free gifts + huge bundles. Sitewide up to 25% off, grease excluded; DiggerShield $150 / $200 off. Gifts: $399 Digger Wipes + free shipping; $599 adds a Magnet Tool Mat; $799 adds a Drawbar Cover. Bundles: Hardcore Tradie $777 (save $333), Ultimate Earthmover $732 (save $742), Owner Operator $778 (save $1,209); hero gear discounted, the rest free.

THEME

DiggerLid's Black Friday Adventure: Jack Clacker heads down from the country to help the boys get the word out. Three episodes, a bonus SANY yard and China sequence, and a finale, cut down for paid. Christmas gifting page live from the mid-sale push.

CHANNELS

Meta paid social for acquisition (cold traffic to product pages), email and SMS for the base (segmented sends), organic and creator content for the theme, site pages built before hype.

PRE-SALE TO-DOS

Popup reach above 50% on paid pages by 15 Oct · bundle, DiggerShield and gift margins signed off by 30 Oct · collab bundle confirmed · worksite shoot 27 Oct, paddock 28 Oct · pages live and tracked by 13 Nov · ads and sends scheduled before hype on 17 Nov.

THE LAST THREE SALES, SIDE BY SIDE

Measure	BFCM 2025	EOFY 2026	Father's Day 2026
Sale dates	18 Nov to 1 Dec 2025	17 to 30 Jun 2026	23 Aug to 7 Sep 2026
Net revenue over the sale	$535k (14 days)	$543k (14 days)	$292k (16 days)
Orders	1,759	2,107	1,022
Share of sale revenue in the first 48 hours	31%	19%	11%
Mid-sale revenue per day	5.3%	4.9%	6.7%
Share of sale revenue in the last 48 hours	15%	32%	9%
Revenue from returning customers	22%	29%	22%
Sale landing page conversion	2.09%	3.38%	2.33%
Orders from landing page sessions	373	382	104
Meta spend as % of revenue	25.5% (month)	25% (month)	28% (sale window)

BFCM front-loads because the urgency is the launch; EOFY back-loads because the urgency is 30 June. Father's Day (23 Aug to 7 Sep) ran flat: no launch spike and no deadline spike, about 6.7% a day throughout, because the gift deadline sat after the sale ended.

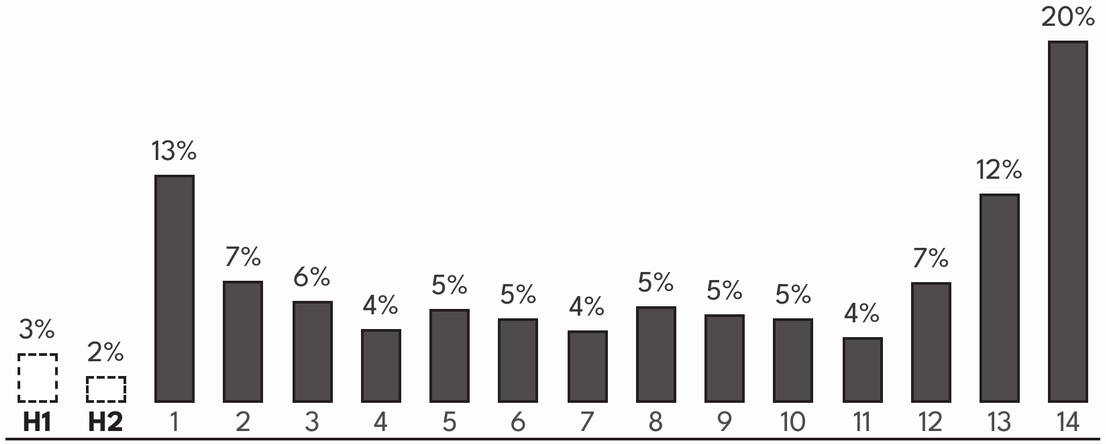

THE DAILY SHAPE WE ARE PLANNING TO

BFCM 2025: share of sale revenue by day

Hype, 16 and 17 Nov: $14k and 57 orders. Site sessions flat on the week before (5.5k); conversion 1.0% against 1.4%.

EOFY 2026: share of sale revenue by day

Hype, 15 and 16 Jun: $24k and 106 orders. Sessions up 50% on the week before (10.3k); conversion fell to 1.0% from 2.1%.

30%

of sale revenue in the first 48 hours at BFCM. On the $990k plan that is about $297k for the launch weekend.

5%

per day through the middle. The mid-sale content drop, the gifting push and segmented sends exist to lift this number.

70%

of launch-day buyers were new customers. The launch is an acquisition play; keep prospecting on.

EIGHT MOVES FOR 2026

1 · START WIDER

Test USA, NZ, TikTok and YouTube on a fixed budget with a kill rule. 70% of launch buyers are new.

2 · 13 DAYS, 2-DAY HYPE

Thu 19 Nov to Tue 1 Dec. Hype Tue 17 and Wed 18 Nov to a new, cold audience, landing on a capture page.

3 · STRONGER THEME

DiggerLid's Black Friday Adventure: Jack Clacker comes down from the country to help the boys, across the warehouse, a paddock and a worksite.

4 · CUT AND RUN

Written stop rules: landing page under 1.5% by midday, or two days over 30% spend-to-revenue.

5 · NEW GIFTING MARKET

Mon 23 Nov: a Titan Sox × DiggerLid × 3DPro pack on its own gifting page and offer, to cold gift buyers.

6 · PRE-GAME CHECK

Pages built and tracked by 13 Nov, popup reach above 50% on paid pages, ad sets and sends scheduled before hype on 17 Nov.

7 · BETTER REACTIVATION

Email and SMS to the 12,745 first-time buyers of the last year; grease reorder nudges.

8 · BEAT THE HANGOVER

December without another discount: gift guide, new product, shipping cut-offs. July after EOFY lost money.

Excluding grease is a decision with a number attached: the grease system was 33% of the 2025 sale and grease packs carried a 14% discount. Options: exclude it and accept a smaller grease share, or feature grease packs as a hero offer instead of a sitewide cut. The $399 free-shipping tier matches the existing signup offer, which converts signups at 37%.

THEME: DIGGERLID'S BLACK FRIDAY ADVENTURE

THE LOGLINE

Jack Clacker heads down from the country to help the boys get the word out about their sale. He arrives ready to teach; his demonstrations keep revealing better ways. He leaves with a ute of bargains and the lesson: you can be tough and still look after your machine, your gear and your body. He still reckons he taught the boys a thing or two.

HOW IT CARRIES THE SALE

Hype (17 and 18 Nov) teases Jack and the offer to a new, cold audience and drives sign-ups. Launch (Thu 19 Nov, midday) opens with the offer. A new episode lands at the mid-sale drop on 23 Nov.

MEET JACK CLACKER: THE HOST

BACKSTORY	1 · The country town	2 · The call	3 · Ready to teach	4 · The lesson	5 · Heading home
	Offscreen. He reckons AI has stolen all the local jobs.	The boys need help with Black Friday. Off to the big smoke.	Every demonstration reveals a better way. He hesitates, then adopts it.	Tough, and still look after your machine, gear and body.	A ute of bargains. 'Good trip. Got the boys sorted.'

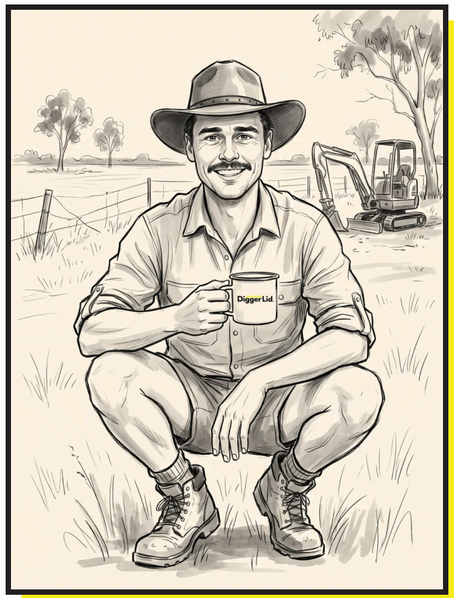

THE OLD WAY
On the tools forty years, by his own count. From a long line of hard men, all 'retired at forty'.

WRONG WISDOM
Hands out old-man country know-how with total authority, and it's wrong every time.

RESPECTS THE BOYS
'These guys know their excavators, grease and on-site protection.' He just assumes they need his wisdom too.

THE LAMENT
Is there still a place for an outback bushman in this new world of AI?

PHYSICAL COMEDY
Clumsy, falls over constantly. Never notices, never reacts, never winks.

INFLATED CONTRIBUTION
Takes credit for every win. Luke closes the deal; Jack: 'Sometimes you've just got to be firm.'

BAD KNEES, BAD BACK
He's got bad knees and a bad back. But doesn't everyone?

QUIETLY COMING AROUND
Hesitant to adopt their methods, but we can see he knows they work. His behaviour changes; his commentary doesn't.

POSITIVE, NEVER CRUEL
On the team's side. The joke is his sense of his own importance, never the boys or the customer.

LOVABLE AT HEART
Warm, engaging, always trying. All he wants is to share what he knows.

CATCH PHRASES
	'G'day, I'm Jack Clacker, and this is my backyard.' Opens every cut.	'Never needed one.' Said about every product, just before it proves him wrong.	'Old trick.' The lead-in to bush wisdom that turns out to be wrong.	'Good trip. Got the boys sorted.'	'Been saying that for years.'

THE STORY, LOCATION BY LOCATION

Location	Status	Story beat
Country town / pub	Referenced offscreen	Jack reckons AI has stolen all the local jobs. The call from DiggerLid gives him a reason to head to the big smoke and help with Black Friday.
DiggerLid warehouse / HQ	Filmed ✓	Jack meets the boys and gets involved in sale preparations. They know their products; he assumes his country wisdom will complete the operation. This sets up the demonstrations to follow.
SANY machine yard	Bonus connecting sequence	The boys are buying a shiny new excavator to showcase their covers. Jack boasts about his negotiating expertise, but arrives as Luke happily closes the deal. Jack contributes 'Yep', then tells camera: 'Sometimes you've just got to be firm.'
China	Bonus cutaway	Asked to organise collection, Jack mistakes the manufacturer's address for the pickup address and goes to China. He reframes the unnecessary trip as useful research. This connects the purchase to the machine's arrival at the paddock.
Testing farm paddock	Shoot Wed 28 Oct	With the machine ready, Jack demonstrates his 'proper' ways of doing things. His cumbersome methods give the boys opportunities to show how their protection gear works. He quietly starts adopting it.
Construction worksite	Shoot Tue 27 Oct	The lessons carry into a working environment: protecting the excavator, greasing properly and looking after his body with the PRO Mat. His behaviour changes, even if his commentary doesn't.
Departure / return to country town	Shoot TBC	His ute is packed with Black Friday purchases. He takes the new lessons home and presents them as his own wisdom. His verdict: 'Good trip. Got the boys sorted.'

Black Friday ties it together: it's why he comes, why the boys are showing off the gear, and why he leaves stocked up. The deals give viewers a reason to follow his lead now.

JACK: 'Yep mate, it's all up here.' (taps head)

Same shot, no cut. He points at the exact spot that's about to fail.

Keep tracking a half-beat; suddenly just the brothers and the bucket.

THE LOOK

The brothers stop, look down, then at each other. SFX: snoring.

Static wide from behind Jack's boots. Hold the silence.

THE LINE
10 to 13s

JOEL (flat): 'We're having a huge sale.' SUPER: HUGE BLACK FRIDAY SALE

Medium on the brothers, Jack's boots in front.

Steps into a puddle; doesn't notice.

THE LOCALS

JACK (VO): 'But looks like AI's already taken everyone's jobs.'

At the bar, glancing round at the robot regulars.

THE YARN
15 to 23s

ROBOT: 'Thiiis big.'

A robot spins a yarn, arms wide; Jack sours.

THE CALL
23 to 30s

JACK, on the flip phone: 'Boys. It's Jack.'

Through the ute windscreen, calling the DiggerLid boys.

KEEP IT QUIET
30 to 38s

BOYS: 'Keep it a secret. We're not talking about it yet.'

Reverse shot; finger to lips at the speakerphone.

PRETTY GOOD
38 to 55s

Covers, KAJO, PRO Mats; offer and end date on screen.

Wildlife-doc low angle from the grass.

FIRST CONTACT
8 to 15s

JACK: 'Primary objective of this excavation?' OPERATOR: 'Digging a hole.'

He joins the group; he nods knowingly.

INVITING HIMSELF

JACK: 'Let me show you a thing or two.'

Climbs into the excavator without waiting.

THE DEMONSTRATION
